VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH - Geoffrey M. Trachtenberg, Levenbaum & Trachtenberg

Geoffrey M. Trachtenberg is a managing partner at the law firm of Levenbaum Trachtenberg, PLC. His practice focuses on personal injury, especially motorcycle injury, legal malpractice, class action matters, and commercial litigation. Mr. Trachtenberg attended the University of California, Los Angeles as an undergraduate, focusing on psychology, and then graduated from Boalt Hall School of Law at the University of California, Berkeley in 1997. Upon graduation, Mr. Trachtenberg served as a law clerk to the Honorable Gary L. Taylor, U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, and then practiced with the law firm of Irell & Manella, LLP in Newport Beach, California.

Mr. Trachtenberg authored the Third-Party Interests: Liens and Subrogation Rights, a comprehensive publication on Arizona state and federal third-party recovery rights, and co-authored the Arizona Motor Vehicle Accident Deskbook (2nd edition). He is the President of the Arizona Association for Justice, the Immediate-Past President of the State Bar of Arizona, serves as a Judge Pro Tempore with the Maricopa County Superior Court, and volunteers by providing pro bono legal services to low income families and veterans.

AZCLE PUBLICATIONS

THIRD-PARTY INTERESTS:
Liens and Subrogation Rights, 2016

Geoffrey M. Trachtenberg,
*Levenbaum & Trachtenberg

This publication provides a framework for understanding third-party interests and, along the way, answer the root questions under currently applicable law: (a) what are your client's legal rights relative to asserted or potential third-party interests, and (b) what are your legal and ethical obligations relative to those interests?
